AGRICULTURAL LANDS

On the Magdalena and Altar Rivers, Sonora

Stock and Cattle Ranches in the Districts of Magdalena and Altar

The district watered by the Magdalena River is the best in Sonora; the greatest water shed, the greatest rainfall, and unquestionably the best climate, with an average elevation of 3000 feet. Corn in summer and grain in winter, and the best alfalfa district in Sonora.

200,000 ACRES of bottom land on the Magdalena River with ample flood waters, and pumping water at very shallow depth, with abundant mesquite fuel.

Less than 20% of the valley in cultivation today. Main trunk line railway traverses the valley. The mesa lands constitute the best grazing lands in Sonora. No tick.

Agricultural bottom lands from $5.00 to $25.00. Grazing land with ample water for stock, $1.00 to $1.50.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Flag day in Nogales yesterday. L. B. Fleischer will return from Panama next week.

Cy Marsteller has bought the old Ekey ranch northeast of the city.

Mr. I. E. Bowers is spending a few days in town with Mrs. Bowers.

Fourth of July dance will be held in the new Southern Pacific freight house.

Wednesday morning Mrs. William Schuckmann and daughter, Miss Elsa, departed for Milwaukee, Wis., to visit relatives for a month.

Fire last Thursday night gutted the office of the Sonora Depot. The prompt work of the Nogales fire department saved the building.

Lew Hartman, superintendent of the Float Gold Amalgamating Company, has been a business visitor at the county seat a couple of days this week.

A fine strike has recently been made in the mines owned by Messrs. Wm. Schuckmann and Dick Fleischer, adjoining the Three-R Mines owned by N. L. Amster.

The 48th Star Edition of the Arizona Democrat is certainly a sure-nuf Jim dandy, and will do much to advertise the wonderfully rich resources of the great state of Arizona. It is a credit to the Democrat and state.

Ben Daniels, one of Colonel Roosevelt's Arizona boosters, has gone to Chicago to look after his old colonel's interests and if Arizona's delegates don't get seats in the big Republican National convention, it won't be Ben's fault.

W. J. McCord, of the McCord-Vick Syndicate owning a million acre tract of land in Altar district, Sonora, accompanied by Fred Moore arrived in the city Wednesday in Mr. McCord's auto, expecting to remain here several days.

Ex-City Marshal W. B. Coughlin has gone to Indiana to enjoy a summer's visit at home with his parents, whom he has not seen for several years. He'll return to Nogales next fall. We join his numerous friends in wishing him a good time.

H. R. Randolph, brother of Col. Epe Randolph, president of the Southern Pacific of Mexico Railroad, who for some time past has been in charge of construction work at the front, arrived from Tepic Wednesday evening on his way north.

A shipment of silver-gold bullion was made through Nogales Wednesday by Wells Fargo from Sinaloa, Mexico, to San Francisco. There were twenty-five bars each of which weighed about forty pounds. Ed. Conklin accompanied the precious metal as special guard.

Harry Lawton, general freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific of Mexico, with headquarters at Guaymas, after visiting Cananea, Naco and Tucson on company business, has returned to Guaymas. Agent W. C. Bowman of this place accompanied Mr. Lawton to Cananea.

Wednesday Senator James A. Harrison returned to the Capitol and will remain there until the extra session of the state legislature adjourns. At this time of the year Phoenix is the hottest ever, and naturally the lawmakers will be mighty glad when the time comes for them to beat it back home.

Wednesday Superior Judge Duffy, accompanied by Attorneys O'Connor and Noon, and Court Reporter Robert E. Lee, went down to Calabasas to inspect an irrigation ditch in connection with a law suit now pending in Superior Court. The trip was made in Karns Bros. auto.

A. H. Glidewell of Patagonia, accompanied by Mrs. Glidewell, spent a couple of days in the city this week on a combined business and pleasure visit. Mr. Glidewell owns a number of mighty good looking mining prospects in the Patagonia mining districts, which he is now giving his personal attention. We hope he'll make a big stake.

H. J. Temple, general superintendent of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, after spending three weeks in the east, including Washington and Chicago, returned home Wednesday. His mother and little daughter who accompanied him, will spend the summer with relatives in Boston. Mr. Temple made the trip in his handsome traveling home, "Sonora." En route home he stopped over a day in Tucson.

City Marshal Wright this week purchased from Bert Cummings, a fine residence lot in Noon Addition, on which he will build himself and family a home.

James T. Johnstone, who is one of the lucky owners of the Three Line Men silver-lead mines over in the Mowry district this county, is a visitor in the city on business connected with his splendid property from which he and his partners will shortly ship high-grade ore. We hope "Dad" will make a pile of money out of his mine. He has worked faithfully and hard and certainly deserves every possible success.

Get ready, now, for the big Fourth of July celebration at Nogales. The Daily Citizen of Tucson has started the ball rolling, by giving a new flag to the county. It is 5x8 feet and contains all the 48 stars, and is now flying from the county court house pole. It was presented to the county at the instance of County Attorney Noon, by Philip Cooke, traveling agent for the Citizen, on a recent trip here in the interest of his paper.

Friends of Mrs. Harry Greenwell of this city, will regret to learn that her father, General A. Wylie, after a short illness, suddenly passed away on June 5th, at the Wylie home in Wooster, Ohio. General Wylie was prominent in Ohio politics, being well and favorably known in the Buckeye state where he had resided many years. At one time he was a candidate for President on the Prohibition ticket. In the loss of her distinguished father, Mrs. Greenwell has the sympathy of her Nogales friends.

Thursday J. H. Dyer, superintendent of the Southern Pacific, with headquarters at Tucson, accompanied by Herman Kruttschnitt, assistant superintendent, and Phil C. Brannen, the big Tucson haberdasher, spent several hours in Nogales, arriving in the morning in Mr. Dyer's private car "Sacramento," and returning in the evening. Messrs. Dyer and Brannen were accompanied by lady members of their respective families. Assistant Superintendent Kruttschnitt is in charge of the work of improving the railroad company's property at this place.

Having closed a deal for the Patagonia hotel at Patagonia, which he and his wife purchased from Colonel R. R. Richardson, Postmaster Harry Barnett of Patagonia, returned home Wednesday to at once commence putting the hotel in first-class condition for the reception of guests, at an early date, which will be announced later. On the day of the opening of the Patagonia Hotel by Mr. and Mrs. Barnett, a big crowd of their Nogales friends will go up and help them celebrate the occasion. Under the personal supervision of Mine Host and Hostess Barnett, the pleasantly located hotel will be one of the most attractive places in the country. Patagonia's glorious all-the-year-round climate cannot be excelled, and we predict a great business for the Patagonia, under its new management.
